OUR VISITORS

Today's F.A. Cup 1st Round tie brings together two Lancs. League clubs and near neighbours with ourselves, Bury.

Apart from a meeting in the Lancs. Senior Cup in the mid-sixties, Wigan and Bury have never been paired together in any competition.

On behalf of the chairman and directors, I extend a warm welcome to Mr. Bill Allen (Bury chairman), his board, officials and players to Springfield Park today for what we all hope will be a rousing, but clean, hard fought Cup-tie.

Bury are renowned F.A. Cup fighters. They have indeed won the Cup on two occasions, in 1900 they beat Southampton by 4-0, and in 1903 they created a record that still holds today when beating Derby County by 6 goals to nil at Crystal Palace.

When Bury supporters came to London to see their team in this final very few Londoners had heard of such a place as Bury, fewer still could say where it was exactly.

However, within three years Bury had won the Cup twice, as well as every other football trophy within its scope, except the Football League Championship.

Bury F.C. was formed in 1885, their ground known as Gigg Lane is reputed to have the finest playing surface in the country; ground capacity is around 35,000. In 1960 they housed their record gate of 35,000 for the match with Bolton Wanderers in the F.A. Cup.

Last season they drew 19 games and up to now this season they have already drawn 10 games. They do, therefore, appear to be draw specialists, suggesting they must be strong at the back.

FROM THE MANAGERS DESK

Today I welcome Dave Hatton and his Bury team to Springfield Park in what looks like a particularly intriguing Cup-tie. I have watched Bury twice this year and have been impressed, and I am sure they are in a false position in the league. Against Swansea City they were most unlucky. Last Saturday they fought back very well to gain a point at Gillingham after being two goals down. I would also like to welcome young Danny Wilson back to Springfield Park. Danny played for us two years ago, but I only wish he had arrived on the scene a little later, as we could not compete with a league club when it came to offering him terms. He is certainly making grand progress at Gigg Lane and I am sure he has Dave Hatton to thank for a certain amount of success.

He was always a first class competitor, and that coupled with his willingness to learn, has meant he always had a big chance of making the grade.

READING MATCH

What magnificent support we received last week. It was really tremendous, and I can assure you all, it got right through to the players.

After the game the comments were thick and fast and all were to the effect that they felt the supporters had really got behind them, as they usually do in cup-ties. If we can maintain that liaison between our fans and players, we will not go far wrong.

If supporters at all times could realise they are an important part of the club's success, and support the team, even on adverse occasions (which every side is bound to have) then I am positive we have the makings of a first class set-up which can make steady progress up the tables of the Football League.

I know we will have your tremendous backing today, and we will do all in our power to get through to Round Two.

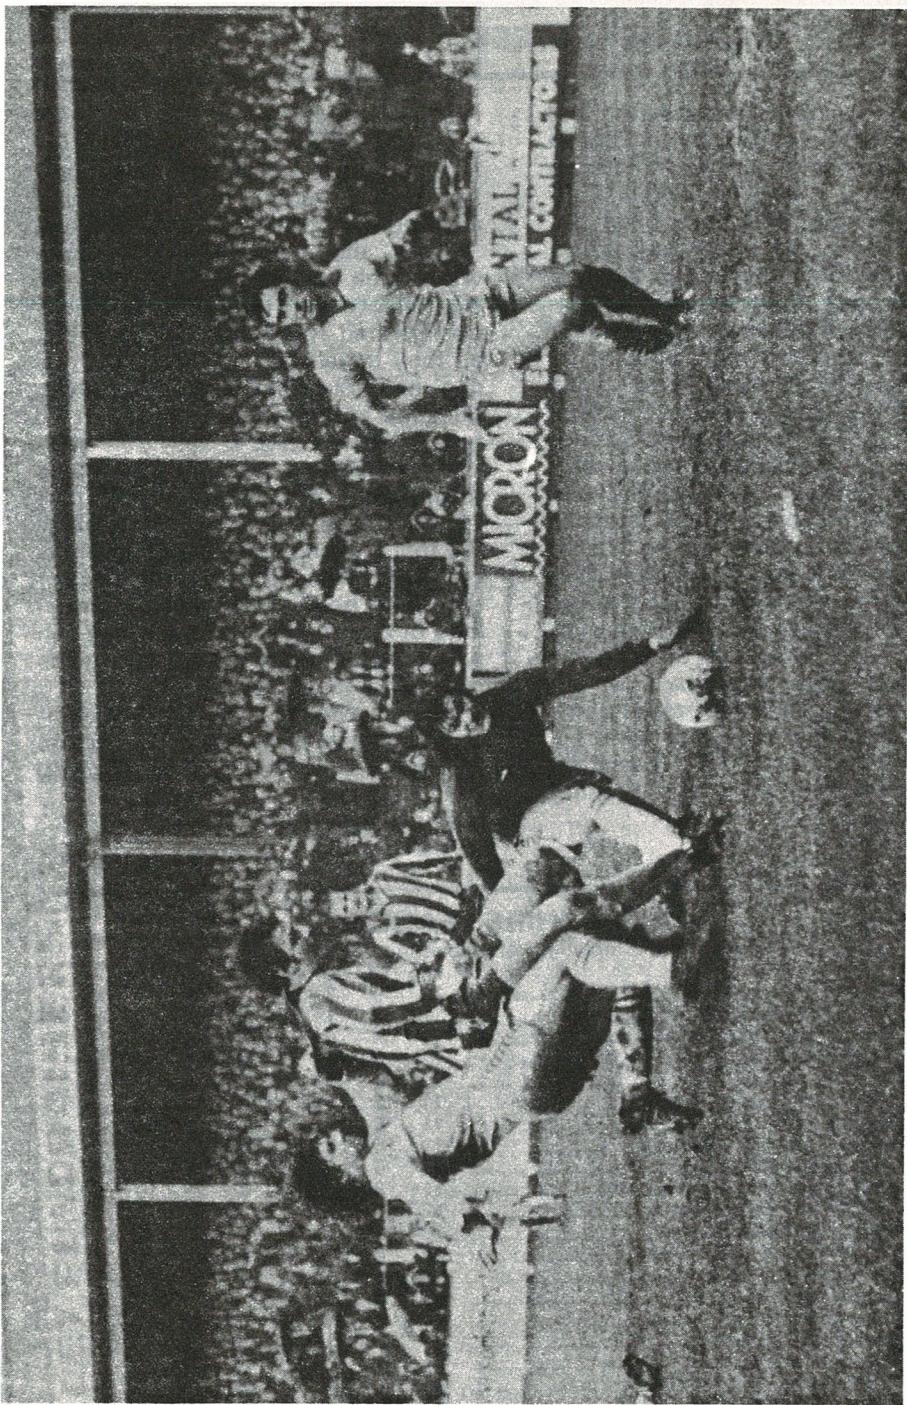

Enjoy today's match.

I. McNEILL, Manager.

Peter Houghton puts Latics 1-0 up against Reading last Saturday after a terrific run from the half way line. The goalkeeper and Reading defenders can only stand and watch as he fires a shot into the bottom corner.

4th DIVISION NEWS

Rochdale, who were only beaten by a penalty by promotion chasing Aldershot last Saturday, have now gone 35 League away games without a win.

Wigan are, as yet, the only team not to have drawn at home. Bradford City and Port Vale have not drawn away. Every club in the League has now lost at least one game away, but there are four unbeaten teams at home—Wimbledon, Reading, Hereford and Northampton.

Stan Anderson, who has been the manager at Doncaster for the past four years, has resigned to take up the position of assistant manager to Ian Greaves at Bolton.

Eight Fourth Division clubs are paired against non-league sides in today's F.A. Cup 1st Round. Only two, however, have to travel — Wimbledon, who last season were beaten at Enfield, are at Gravesend of the Southern Premier League, and Crewe, who last season were beaten by Scarborough, travel to Nuneaton, another Southern Premier League club.

There has already been seven managerial changes in the League since 1st August, 1978. Two, however, have moved to higher circles, Stan Anderson, Doncaster to Bolton and Bob Smith, Port Vale to Swindon.

CHAIRMAN'S MESSAGE

Today we play our first ever F.A. Cup-tie as a Football League Club, and we couldn't have wished for more attractive opposition than our neighbours Bury, at home.

Over the years Bury have always made known their friendliness towards Wigan, and on the many occasions we have visited London for the Football League A.G.M. Bill Allen their chairman, has always been very comforting when we failed to gain admission, and last year was delighted with our success.

We cannot wish you luck today Bill, but give you our best wishes for the remainder of the season.

F.A. Cup-ties are magnetic to the directors, managers and players, and to every interested follower of the game. Each season's first round draw bring memories of previous games, not to mention dreams that this year we shall have a record run and may meet Manchester United or Liverpool!

Many present spectators will remember the memorable 3rd Round tie at St. James' Park, Newcastle, in January, 1954, when we drew 2-2 before over 50,000 of a gate. The replay at Wigan the following Wednesday saw Newcastle winners by 3-2. That year was the only time we have been in the 4th Round draw. It was Burnley v Newcastle or Wigan Athletic.

In recent years most people will remember our great display at Manchester City in the reign of Gordon Milne, and last season's never-to-be forgotten F.A. Cup-tie (the last as a non-league club) at St. Andrews, Birmingham.

Last Saturday's game with Reading was a delight, and a credit to 4th Division football. In atrocious conditions the standard of football was wonderful. A gate of nearly 6,000 was most satisfactory and the refereeing was equal to anything we have seen at Springfield Park for many years.

ARTHUR HORROCKS,

Chairman.

LATICS LINE

by Nick Duxbury

When Wigan Athletic run out for this afternoon's F.A. Cup clash with Bury it will be almost like turning the clock back 12 months.

This time last year Latics target was York City, and today six of the side, who as non-league part-timers ruffled the feathers of City's peacock professionals, are in F.A. Cup action again.

John Brown, Joe Hinnigan, Tommy Gore, Noel Ward, Jeff Wright and Mickey Moore were heroes of that 1-0 first round win and it must surely be one of football's most amazing stories that they should still form the backbone of the side.

Latics fans always regarded the gap between the standard of football in the Northern Premier League and the lower divisions of the Football League to be very small and the F.A. Cup gave their team the chance to prove it.

Last year, Latics took two League scalps—one of Bury's Division Three stablemates Sheffield Wednesday—on the way to that memorable third round exit at Birmingham City, but the doubters could still say that cup success was merely a string of "one-off" results.

League status brought the big test and the six who carry Latics Div. 4 flag into battle with Bury, have proved their long-time admirers right.

Non-league players can make it if they are given the right breaks. In fact, eight of this afternoon's team were non-leaguers with Latics last season, with Frank Corrigan and Peter Houghton late arrivals in the Spring.

So much has happened in the five months since Latics became the newest League club, that the NPL days already seem light years away.

There have been many changes to be made in a short time, and overnight Latics have been transformed from a collection of cup-hunting bakers, joiners, process workers and labourers hoping to grab a brief spot of the headlines. They are now fully-fledged professionals, as Bury may find out to their cost.

WE ARE BACKING "LATICS" ALL THE WAY
